Dear Mr. Feldman:

Thank you for coming to Lewis S. Mills High School (LSM); sharing your story about your daughter Casey and presenting the EndDD program to our student body.

Distracted driving and vehicle safety are such important issues for all drivers today; young and old alike. Taking your family tragedy and turning it into life-saving lessons for others not only takes personal courage and strength, but is a beautiful and long lasting tribute to your daughter.

It was impressive to watch the ease at which you interacted and connected with our students; moving from the stage and walking amongst them in the audience. It was also pleasing to see how engaged and attuned our students were to your message; demonstrated by the positive, lively conversations and feedback we received afterward.

We sincerely hope to have you back to LSM in the near future; supporting your crusade, helping our young adults make positive life choices.

In closing, please extend our gratitude to your colleagues as well.

Regards,

Pamela Lazaroski
Principal
